

ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

Prof. Raymond McFarland, who for several years has been director of the summer session at Middlebury college, has resigned that position to devote his summer next year to other work.

Shoreham is badly afflicted with the influenza. There were two deaths from it last week in the home of Frank Austin, his wife and mother, and three other members of the family were ill at the same time.

Marguerite Baldwin, 18, and her sister, Alice, 14, have died at the orphan asylum in Burlington with influenza recently. Mr. Baldwin lives in Rutland and his wife is in an insane asylum, leaving nine children, all the younger ones of whom are living in the orphan asylum.

Mrs. Annie Dick, 56, died at the Brattleboro Memorial hospital last week as a result of burns which she received Sept. 17. Mrs. Dick at that time was cooking at the home for the aged and while removing a kettle of boiling potatoes from the stove, she upset them, and the shock following resulted in her death.

Raymond A. Walker, who is with his parents in Burlington, while on an indefinite furlough from active service in France, has been in a hospital in New York state since October, when he came from overseas. As he was acting as dispatch bearer, using a motorcycle, and traveling at high speed outside the city of Bordeaux, his machine struck something and threw him, breaking his right leg in six different places. For this reason, he did not see service at the front. He expects an honorable discharge at any time.

The 175-pound iron lion, which has stood on a pedestal in front of the home of Col. Halsey in Middlebury and which for six days recently was missing, was returned last week, being in its usual place on the pedestal one morning when daylight came. It is supposed some of the boys in the S. A. T. C. at Middlebury college took the lion as a joke, as a woman reported seeing five soldiers carrying a large wooden box in the park the night the animal returned. At any rate, the matter had been put in the hands of the police and station attaches had been warned to be on the lookout for any shipment of the lion out of town and it is supposed the fellow involved became alarmed at what might happen.

CURED HIS RUPTURE
I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned. Although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no loss of time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me. Eugene M. Pullen, carpenter, 4612 Marcelline avenue, Massachussetts, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life and stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.—Adv.

C. B. Mann, Aged 85, Died Tuesday After Short Illness.

C. B. Mann, who had for years lived on Fales street, died at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon after a brief illness. Mr. Mann said when he attempted to get up Sunday morning that he was so weak that he could not dress himself and was assisted back to bed, from which he never rose. Mr. Mann was 85 years of age, and his death was due to old age, there being no disease so far as has been determined. Mr. Mann had been practically a resident in town for his entire life. For many years he lived on a farm on the East Brattleboro road, and about fifteen years ago came to town and bought the place on Fales street, where he lived at the time of his death. Two sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Mann, one of whom died in infancy, and the other, Lucien Mann, died when he was 27 years of age. Deceased is survived by his wife and one sister, who lives out of town. Deceased was a member of the United Methodist church. The funeral was held today at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Mann's sister, Mrs. Roy of Roxbury, and her brother, Mr. Denmore, were in town on Tuesday at the time of his death.

Excelsior encampment of Odd Fellows held its annual meeting on Friday evening and elected the following officers to serve the coming year: C. O. G. W. Rogers; H. P. L. G. Erskine; senior warden, J. E. Stokes; scribe, N. C. Buck; treasurer, F. A. Salisbury; junior warden, George Mudgett. It is not known at what time the installation will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brown left on Tuesday for Windsor to pass Christmas with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Warwick. Miss Mary Adams has come from North Andover, Mass., to pass the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adams, whose other daughter, Miss Ruth Adams, of Middlebury college has also come for a few days.

Mrs. Robert Fielders of South Royalton was in town on Tuesday to see her son, Dean Fielders, who is at the sanatorium for care and treatment for relief of a badly swollen leg, from the effects of the influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark of East Montpelier visited on Monday Mrs. Clark's brother, P. B. Daniels, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Partridge have gone to Barre to remain for a few days with their son and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Gilman left on Tuesday for St. Albans to visit their son, Roy Gilman, who has a position in that city.

Charles Holman, one of the rural carriers, met with what might have been a very serious accident on Tuesday as he was returning from his trip. When coming down the hill and nearly opposite the Maples hotel, his horse suddenly became unmanageable and began to run, and Mr. Holman realized that something had happened to the bits and afterwards they were found to be broken. The horse ran wildly down the Main street, which was full of teams, the mail bags being thrown out as they went on. Mr. Holman remained in the wagon and did his best to quiet the horse by talking to it and guiding it as best he could with one-half or more of the bit gone. They passed through the covered bridge safely and as the carriage became broken on one side, Mr. Holman moved to the other, and when near his home the horse was guided between two trees and over a stone into the barn with no serious injury to anybody. It was wonderful that no damage was done, as it was in the early afternoon and many people were out.

Mrs. Roy Manchester Barclay and her children arrived here on Tuesday for a few days' stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Manchester. Mrs. Etta Chamberlin of Montpelier came Tuesday to spend a few days here with Mrs. O. S. Chamberlin and Miss Mary Pratt.

There was a dance at the Salisbury warehouse on Tuesday evening, to which there were three hundred people invited.
